

Taylor Student, M.A.

111 Street #1
Anytown, IL 60000
(773) 111-1111
tsemail@school.edu

EDUCATION

September 2003- Present	The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Chicago, IL APA-Accredited Program Doctoral Student in Clinical Psychology Anticipated graduation in May 2008, GPA 3.99
May 2005	The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Chicago, IL Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology, GPA 3.99
May 2002	The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC Master of Arts in General Psychology Graduated with honors, GPA 3.81
May 2000	Hope College, Holland, MI Bachelor of Arts in Psychology Graduated Magna Cum Laude, with honors, GPA 3.75

TRAINING EXPERIENCE

July 2007- Present	MacNeal Health Network, Berwyn, IL Practicum Student: Advanced Therapy Extern <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provide outpatient assessment and psychotherapy to persons with mild-severe mental illness/substance abuse.</li><li>• Co-lead psychotherapy/psychoeducational groups on inpatient Psychiatry and in Partial Hospital.</li><li>• Consult to a 12-step Addictions unit by providing assessments and therapy.</li><li>• Administer and interpret psychological assessments.</li></ul>
July 2006- June 2007	Swedish Covenant Hospital, Chicago, IL Practicum Student: Therapy Extern in Health Psychology Department <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provided chronic and acute health psychology services to a range of patients suffering with mild to severe physical and psychological impairments.</li><li>• Completed neuropsychological assessments.</li><li>• Provided individual therapy to outpatients, bedside consultations and rehabilitation services to inpatients.</li><li>• Collaborated with physicians, nurses, social workers, rehabilitation therapists and psychiatrists on an interdisciplinary care team.</li><li>• Used primarily cognitive-behavioral, hypnotherapy, and humanistic therapeutic interventions.</li><li>• Participated in didactic and support activities such as grand rounds, team staffing, and support group.</li></ul>

TRAINING EXPERIENCE (continued)

July 2005-
June 2006

Community Mental Health Council, Chicago, IL

Practicum Student: Assessment Extern

- Assessed children and adults with mild to severe mental health diagnoses and/or family issues.
- Collaborated with Parenting Assessment Team to determine fitness-to-parent in DCFS cases.
- Co-facilitated Attention Deficit-Hyperactivity Disorder group for children ages 6-11.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

March 2006-
Present

Northwestern Memorial University, Chicago, IL

Support Group Leader, Center for Behavioral Medicine & Sport Psychology

- Lead support group for post-operative bariatric surgery participants one week each month.
- Provide supportive and problem solving therapeutic interventions to group members.
- Consult with physicians and therapists of members.

April 2005-
Present

Private Practice of Grant P. Green, Psy.D., Chicago, IL

Psychological Testing Consultant

- Conduct psychological batteries with clients using WAIS-III/WISC-IV, Rorschach, TAT, incomplete sentences, and drawings.
- Compile and analyze results of testing, with supervision.
- Provide feedback to clients.

August 2003-
May 2004

University of Michigan Health System, Ann Arbor, MI

Project Manager, Depression in Primary Care Project

- Worked directly with Primary Investigator Peter Practitioner, M.D. to implement new treatment protocol for depression into five hospital-affiliated primary care clinics.
- Presented project to clinic directors, office managers and doctors in individual staff meetings.
- Coordinated with funding agency, The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, through monthly progress reports and conference calls.
- Created conference presentation on project progress for funding agency and attended annual conference.
- Devised and distributed monthly incentives for clinics and doctors with the best performance.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

June-
October 2005                      The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Chicago, IL
Teaching Assistant

- Provided teaching support to Patricia Professor, Psy.D. for Introduction to Intellectual Assessment course.
- Assisted instructor in setting course syllabus, preparing class materials, and grading protocols and written reports.
- Facilitated learning and proficiency in intellectual assessments such as the WAIS-III, WISC-IV, WRAT-III and PPVT.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Doctoral Dissertation

Student, T. (2007). Joy luck mothers & Coca-Cola daughters: A study in intergenerational trials and triumphs considering acculturation and values adherence. Doctoral dissertation in preparation, The Chicago School of Professional Psychology.

Master's Thesis

Student, T. (2002). How do I love thee?: Developmental and cultural differences in concepts of divorce among a Presbyterian American sample. Unpublished master's thesis, The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC.

March 2006 –
Present                                Healthy Living Academies, Inc., Chicago, IL
Research Assistant

- Provide research support to David Doctor, Ph.D.
- Aid in scoring, analysis and maintenance of data on attendee performance at five weight loss and wellness camps and year-long residential school across the United States.
- Participate in month-long training in cognitive-behavioral weight loss and anxiety management techniques.

August –
December 2005                      The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Chicago, IL
Research Assistant, ChildServ Program Development Group

- Provided research support to Paula Psychologist, Psy.D.
- Participated in program development of ChildServ Residential Services by writing training module on Oppositional Defiant Disorder.
- Collaborated with students and faculty at The Chicago School to present module to staff at ChildServ Residential Services.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE (continued)

August 2003 –
May 2004

University of Michigan Health System, Ann Arbor, MI
Research Assistant, Active Depression Management Project

- Worked closely with Principal Investigator Donald Doctor, M.D. on implementation of computer-prompted depression screening program at one university-affiliated family clinic.
- Interviewed participating patients, doctors and clinic staff in focus groups.
- Visited clinic to train doctors and staff in using program and made regular visits to check up on progress and deliver incentives for high performance.
- Managed project databases, including patient demographic and survey information, and doctor survey information.
- Aided in preparing continuing research documents for Institutional Review Board.
- Aided in research article drafting and editing.

January 2003 –
May 2004

The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC
Research Assistant, Active Religion and the New Immigrants Project

- Worked closely with Principal Investigators, Peter Practitioner, Ph.D. and Michael Psychologist, Ph.D.
- Participated on student research team to implement project into immigrant communities in the District of Columbia and Maryland.
- Conducted interviews with immigrant parents and their adolescent children on various cultural and moral issues.
- Collaborated on questionnaires, interview schedules, databases and Human Subjects Review Board proposal.

December 2001 –
December 2002

The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC
Research Assistant

- Provided research support to Peter Practitioner, Ph.D.
- Created coding manuals for interviews conducted in the moral psychology field.
- Coded 120 interviews using manuals.
- Researched topics in cultural and moral psychology.

August 2001 –
December 2002

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI
Research Assistant

- Provided research support to Patricia Professor, Ph.D.
- Recruited and conducted cognitive aging experiments with senior citizens.
- Helped accumulate and organize research citations in files.

August 2000 –
August 2001

Hope College, Holland, MI
Student Assistant

- Provided research support to Susan Professor, Ph.D.
- Researched topics in Industrial/Organizational psychology.
- Proofread research drafts.

LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY SERVICE EXPERIENCE

June–
October 2005

The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Chicago, IL
Planning Committee Member and Evaluation Team Coordinator,
Cultural Impact Conference

- Developed and distributed assessments to evaluate learning and overall conference experience.
- Analyzed data from evaluations.

September 2004–
September 2005

Ozone House, Ann Arbor, MI
Crisis Counselor

- Answered questions and concerns of children and adolescents via the crisis hotline.
- Attended intensive training seminar in crisis counseling.

January–
March 2004

Pediatric Educational Emotional Development Services, Lake Forest, IL
Psychology Intern

- Administered therapeutic exercises to children and adolescents, with supervision.
- Researched various developmental disorders and created information brochures for parents and clients.

January –
May 2000

Ottawa County Mental Health Community Education Program, Holland, MI
Volunteer Assistant

- Interacted with participants of the program, who were diagnosed with various disorders such as Autism, Mental Retardation, and Schizophrenia.

PUBLICATIONS

Doctor, D., Psychologist, N., Practitioner, J., Student, T., & Doctor, J. (2005). Integrating a depression monitoring form into primary care: A qualitative case analysis of the Active Depression Management pilot. Annals of Family Medicine, 3, 22-33.

Doctor, D., Professor, M., Researcher, J., & Student, T. (2005). Integrating computer assisted depression monitoring into primary care: Quantitative outcomes of the Active Depression Management pilot. Annals of Family Medicine, 3, 182-194.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Student, T. (2006, October). Initial long-term follow-up at the first boarding school for overweight teenagers: Sustained substantial weight losses at the Academy of the Sierras. Presentation conducted at the annual meeting of NAASO, The Obesity Society, Boston.

Student, T. (2006, October). Overcoming the stigma of mental illness: Depression in adults between 20 and 50, prevention and solutions. Presentation conducted at the annual conference of the Illinois Psychological Association, Chicago.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS (continued)

Student, T. & Psychologist, M. (2005, June). Families' and Communities' Reactions to Disasters. Presentation to therapists and volunteers working for tsunami relief in Batticaloa, Sri Lanka.

Student, T. (2003, October). Depression in primary care at the University of Michigan: Progress and prospects. Poster session presented at the annual meeting for Projects in Depression and Primary Care of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Phoenix, AZ.

Professor, J., Doctor, D., Practitioner, M., & Student, T. (2003) What causes depressed patients to believe they need an antidepressant? Proceedings of the annual meeting of the North American Primary Care Research Group, Canada, 23, 222-245.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Psychological Association, Graduate Student Affiliate
- Division 12, Society of Clinical Psychology, Student Affiliate
- Division 38, Health Psychology, Student Affiliate
- Illinois Psychological Association, Graduate Student Affiliate
- Pew Honor Society Member

REFERENCES

John Doctor, Ph.D.
Executive Director
Center for Behavioral Medicine & Sport Psychology
Northwestern University
123 Main Street
Evanston, IL 60000
(312) 333-3333

David Doctor, Psy.D.
Licensed Clinical Psychologist
Any Community Hospital
456 Main Drive
Anytown, IL 60000
(847) 444-4444

Mary Doctor, Psy.D.
Health Psychology Department Supervisor
Any Community Hospital
456 Main Drive
Anytown, IL 60000
(847) 555-5555

Diane Practitioner, Psy.D.
Licensed Psychologist
Community Mental Health Center
789 Some Place
Big City, IL 60000
(773) 666-6666