Official Course Description

This course is provided as a general elective for students wishing to enroll in a study abroad opportunity offered through the program or other Chicago School programs. Integration of international perspectives in the counseling field will be addressed.

Counseling: Global Perspectives: Israel

This course offers an in-depth cultural experience while focusing on serving the mental health needs of the Israeli and Palestinian people. We will collaborate with Israeli and Palestinian psychology students to explore mental health counseling theories and techniques in Israeli with a special focus on Israeli refugee population. While in Israel, students will receive specialized instruction in the Mental Health Facilitator (MHF) program (<http://www.mentalhealthfacilitator.org/>) and use the MHF training to assist local community members in recognizing and addressing mental health needs within the cultural framework of Israel. Upon completion of the course, students will receive the MHF trainer designation permitting them to continue providing services domestically. This course builds student skills needed for affecting the mental health of communities worldwide. Finally, students will partner with Palestinian and Israeli students to engage in community mental health with preschool students and faculty from East Jerusalem and provide beautification of the preschool.

Technology

Videoconferencing Technology

CMHC Online utilizes an approved recording and live meeting conferencing system that is utilized within all CMHC online courses. The technology meets the physical requirements for HIPAA and FERPA compliance. Students are expected to review the provided tutorial(s) within the CMHC Online Advising Forum's Student Resource page in order to comprehend how to navigate through the web based communications system. Within the tutorial, students will learn how to schedule meetings, about account default settings, how to join meetings from an App on multiple devices, and how to optimize the overall meeting experience.

Canvas Support:

If you need help accessing your course and materials in the Canvas system, the following resources may be of assistance:

1. Search the Canvas Guides which have a plethora of detailed videos, step-by-step instructions, and links:
2. Access the community user boards and discussions.
3. Ask Canvas Student Help Desk:
 - a. Contact the Canvas Student Help Desk by phone: 1-800-747-8367
 - b. Have a livechat with Canvas support (student)

Institutional Learning Goals, Competencies and Outcomes

Institutional Learning Goals

Please refer to the Statement of Values for a description of how our Institutional Learning Goals are derived.

Diversity

Graduates will respect the value and dignity of individuals and groups across all cultural contexts, and advocate for inclusion and equity. They will demonstrate intercultural competence in domestic and international contexts with people who have ideas, beliefs, worldviews, experiences, and behaviors that are different from their own.

Diversity and Advocacy

PLO 2: Students will demonstrate an intersectional lens of cultural competence in counseling with individuals, groups, and families from diverse cultural backgrounds as well as the ability to advocate for equity and social justice in the promotion of mental health on the behalf of clients, the community, and the profession of counseling (CACREP 2.F.2).

By the end of the course, students will be able to...

- CLO 2.1: Students will analyze research addressing multicultural and pluralistic characteristics of Israeli society. Identify theories and models of multicultural counseling, identity development, and social justice and advocacy, as well as discuss strategies for identifying and eliminating barrier, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination in the Israeli culture. (CACREP 2.F.2.a,2.F.2.b, 2.F.2.h)
- CLO 2.2: Students will reflect on self in relation to the Global Perspectives Inventory and discuss learning activities that foster students' self-understanding of the impact of their heritage, attitudes, beliefs, understandings, and acculturative experiences on their views of Israeli culture (CACREP 2.F.2.d).
- CLO 2.3: Students will engage in and discuss learning activities that foster students' understanding of the help-seeking behaviors in Israel. (CACREP 2.F.2.f).
- CLO 2.4: Students will demonstrate an awareness of understanding of the impact of spiritual beliefs on clients' and counselors' worldviews, and discuss multicultural competencies and strategies for working with and advocating optimum wellness for citizens of Israel (CACREP 2.F.2.c, 2.F.2.e, 2.F.2.g)

Professional Behavior

Graduates will be able to demonstrate by their values, beliefs and behaviors adherence to the highest ethical and professional standards in their personal and professional lives.

- Foundations

PLO 1: Students will demonstrate knowledge and application related to ethical professional counseling practice, establish a professional counselor identity, and engage in effective interdisciplinary practice (CACREP 2.F.1).

By the end of this course, students will be able to...

- CLO 1.1: Student will discuss the history and philosophy of global initiatives in the counseling profession including its role in meeting the mental health need of diverse cultures (CACREP 2.F.1.a., CMHC 1.a).
- CLO 1.7: Students will identify the ethical standards of professional organizations and credentialing bodies, and discuss the applications of ethical and legal considerations in professional counseling, and technology's impact on the counseling profession (CACREP 2.F.1.h, 2.F.1.i., 2.F.1.j., 2.F.5.e.).
- CLO 1.13: Students will recognize and apply legal and ethical considerations specific to clinical mental health counseling (CMHC 2.l.).

Professional Practice

Graduates will be able to demonstrate attainment in the areas of competency (as reflected in knowledge, skills and attitudes) required by their area of education and training. Examples include evaluation, intervention, consultation, teaching, and supervision.

- Counseling, Prevention, and Intervention
 PLO 5: Students will demonstrate knowledge and application of the helping process with diverse clients; counseling theories and techniques; prevention, education, and consultation; wellness models; counselor self-understanding; and the change process (CACREP 2.F.5.).

By the end of this course, students will be able to...

- CLO 5.1: Students will differentiate and apply theories and models of effective counseling and wellness programs related to clinical mental health counseling and the Israeli culture (CACREP 2.F.5.a., CMHC 1.b.).
- CLO 5.4: Students will describe and utilize ethical and culturally relevant strategies for developing helping relationships (CACREP 2.F.5.d.).

Methods of Instruction

The CMHC program at the Online Campus is an accelerated graduate program with 60 credit 667 hours. Students will need to invest approximately 21 hours each week per class. All but two of the courses are offered in a fully online format through Canvas. Two courses (CM 528 – Helping Relationships and Skill Development and CM 543 – Group Counseling) are hybrid courses, each containing a four-and-a-half-day residency. The online and hybrid courses have seven modules and each week students complete a series of learning activities (such as readings, media, or small group activities) and assessments (such as discussions, exams, case studies, or presentations). Every course has a minimum of two synchronous live discussions. After successful completion of the CM 543 – Group Counseling, students may begin the fieldwork portion of their program, which includes Practicum, Internship 1, and Internship 2 and constitutes course work and a minimum of 700 hours of fieldwork experience (100 hours during practicum and 600 hours during internship). Students who wish to be licensed in states requiring 1,000 hours of fieldwork may complete Advanced Internship for the remaining 300 hours of fieldwork experience.

Grading Rubrics

The faculty utilizes grading rubrics to provide formative feedback to students on weekly discussion and written assignments. These are point-focused and measure if the student met the expectations of the specific discussion or assignment. The point value and narrative of the rubric inform students how well the student met the specific expectations in each discussion or assignment. These are formative assessments, so the faculty member(s) provide students feedback as the students are learning the material to help shape knowledge, skills, and dispositions. The syllabus section entitled, Course Schedule, Assignments, and Grading, identifies the specific grading rubric for every graded discussion or assignment.

Discussion Forum Scoring Rubric

1. Initial Posts are due time-stamped by 11:59pm, Central Time, Wednesday or Thursday (as indicated in the discussion prompt).
2. 1 point will be deducted for each day the initial post is late.
3. Responsive posts to peers are due on Friday and Saturday of the week (as indicated in the discussion prompt). Responses to faculty feedback need to be made within 48 hours. Post made later than Saturday have an adverse impact on the quality of the learning community. Posting all or the majority of your contribution on last day of the week will result in decreased points due to the fact that you have not been effective in participating in the discussion across the week.
4. Interaction is key to a rigorous discussion: participation over three (3) separate days each week is optimal, as described below.
5. The quality of the discussion is dependent on everyone in the course; therefore, points are gained through posts that stimulate further conversation.
