Dear TCSPP Community,

The Chicago School will be closed today in observance of Veterans Day and in recognition of the valor of our military veterans.

Having achieved both the Top-10 and Gold awards for post-secondary Military Friendly® schools, The Chicago School of Professional Psychology is proud to assist our military members and veterans in becoming the next generation of leaders in psychology, behavioral health sciences, and nursing. We are also deeply grateful for a university community that continues to provide the support and care they need to achieve their academic and professional goals.

Our military service members and veterans have a deep personal commitment to service and the stamina needed to complete any mission. Today, and every day, we honor them and the families and loved ones who support them.

Warm Regards,
Michele

Michele Nealon, Psy.D.
President
