Upcoming Continuing Education Events

Dear TCSPP Faculty, Staff, and Students,

Please join us this October to earn continuing education and professional development credits.

Third Annual TCSPP Interprofessional Conference

October 1, 7:30 AM – 3:00 PM PT / 9:30 AM – 5:00 PM CT / 10:30 AM – 6:00 PM ET

Building on the past topics, the 2020 IPE conference is focused on expanding our audience and providing greater depth into interprofessional collaboration. This year's conference will explore how leaders partner to promote the best interdisciplinary practices in healthcare settings, workplaces, and education. Several professions will come together to describe useful skill sets that encourage interprofessional inclusion and integration. Four sessions offer APA CEs for Psychologists and BBS California CEUs for licensed Counselors, Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists credit to attendees. Individual session registration is available.

CE/CEU Eligible sessions include "A Unique IPE Training" presented by Liane Connely, Ph.D., RN, Monica Snowden, Ph.D., Cody W. Dickson, Ph.D., Lisa A Walters, MS, RN, and Bridget Thoene; "How We IP" presented by Robyn Catagnus, EdD, BCBA-D, LBS, Mudita Dave, Ph.D., Kelley Haynes-Mendez, PsyD, Annette Griffith, Ph.D., BCBA-D, and Kasey Bedard, M.S., BCBA; "On The Front Lines: Training Psychologists as Primary Care Providers" presented by Sarah Shelton, PsyD, MPH, MSCP, Sarah Denen, M.A., Adam Maple, Sheila Cundiff, MSW, John Penezic, Bailey DeSpain, Edna Osei Owusu, M.S., M.A., Heather Dombrowsky, and Steve Katsikas, Ph.D; and "Restorative Circle Praxis: Trauma Informed Teaching and Learning for Justice and Healing" presented by Joy Meeker, Ph.D., Amanda Smith-Byron, Ed.D, and Janice, M.A.
