Welcome to Washington, DC's New Campus Dean, Dr. Dorothy Collins!

Dear TCSPP Community,

I am pleased to announce that we have appointed Dr. Dorothy Collins as the new Campus Dean of the Washington, DC, Campus. Today is Dr. Collins' first official day with The Chicago School, so I want to take a moment and formally introduce and welcome her to our community.

Dr. Collins joins us with more than 25 years of experience in higher education, with expertise in program development, enrollment management, assessment and evaluation, student support, and team building. She most recently served as the Dean of Academic Support and Success at Lehigh Carbon Community College in Pennsylvania, where she provided leadership and vision for a comprehensive student success and services division.

Dr. Collins earned a Ph.D. in Leadership for Higher Education from Capella University as well as a Master of Science in Education and a Bachelor of Science in Education from Youngstown State University.

I am excited for Dr. Collins to use the depth of her expertise and her thoughtful approach to leadership to help the DC Campus continue to thrive in the years ahead.

I also want to take a moment to thank Dr. Ryan Tobiasz, DC's Interim Campus Dean, who has provided vital leadership and stability amid a time of remarkable growth for our DC Campus community. Dr. Tobiasz has led with generosity and care and I look forward to him serving as a valuable partner to Dr. Collins as she gets settled in her new role.

In closing, please join me in welcoming Dr. Collins to our community here at The Chicago School!

Warm Regards,

Michele

Dr. Michele Nealon, Psy.D.
