

SU22 - Dr. Melody Bacon and Dr. Jay Burke

Date	Activity/Note for Exertion Level	Location
Day 1: July 5, 2022	Depart for Zurich, Switzerland	Zurich
Day 2: July 6, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Arrive at Zurich Airport (ZRH) •Transportation from the airport to your hotel at your own expense •8 nights in single rooms with private bathrooms incl. breakfast at the 3-star Hotel Bristol in Zurich •Public transportation pass for the duration of your entire stay in Zurich •Comprehensive orientation session with your coordinator at the hotel •Guided walking tour of Zurich to introduce you to the city. The Altstadt (the German for "old town") encompasses the area of the entire historical city before 1893. The sightseeing of the city is fascinating, the numerous churches are impressive. •Welcome dinner at a restaurant in Zurich to kick off the program (Restaurant Zeughauskeller preferred, can be planned alternatively on Day 3, depending on your preference) 	Zurich
Day 3: July 7, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Guest lecture on "Spirituality" and "Addiction" by Dr. Robert Strubel at the C.G. Jung Institute (2 x 90 minutes) 	Zurich
Day 4: July 8, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Guest lecture on "Failure" and "Fairy Tales" by Dr. med. Renate Daniel at the C.G. Jung Institute (2 x 90 minutes) •Visit to the Psychiatric University Hospital Zurich, a leading psychiatric hospital associated with the University of Zurich followed by a presentation from the clinical director of the addiction treatment unit, Dr. Raoul Bitar. It is also called Burghölzli, after the wooded hill in the district of Riesbach in southeastern Zürich where it is located. 	Zurich

Day 5: July 9, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Guided walking tour of Zurich focusing on the Protestant Reformation. The Reformation was a seminal event in the history of the Western World. Besides Luther and Calvin, Huldrych Zwingli, the pastor at the Grossmünster in Zurich, was one of its leading characters. Since 1519, he spread his own version of the Reformation in Switzerland. Zwingli’s teachings split the country and eventually led to civil war, resulting in his violent death. His legacy nevertheless survived and influenced the history of Zurich and Switzerland for centuries. •Enjoy a free afternoon in Zurich to explore this beautiful city at your own pace 	Zurich
Day 6: July 10, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Free day in Zürich Jewish Museum/Judengasse or Frankfurt History Museum – optional (accessible) Dinner on own	Zurich
Day 7: July 11, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Guest lecture at the International School of Analytical Psychology (ISAPZurich; Marco Della Chiesa as presenter preferred), the world’s only full-time training program in Jungian Psychology offering full-resident and part-resident immersion training to become a Jungian Analyst(exact topic to be agreed upon in conjunction with the faculty leader) •Guided tour of the Museum C.G.Jung House, the residence of Carl Jung and his wife Emma Jung-Rauschenbach •Coordination and payment of testing to make sure the results of the covid test are available in time prior to departure 	Zurich

Day 8: July 12, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Visit to the ETH Zurich Library, the largest public scientific and technical library in Switzerland and serving as a central university library for ETH Zurich. The visit includes the C.G. Jung Archives and Red Book Display(Dr. Yvonne Voegeli as presenter preferred) •Visit to the Psychology Club, founded by Dr. Jung and his students. Meet Ms. Ursula Kiraly for a presentation. 	Zurich
Day 9: July 13, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Public transportation during the day •Use your last day in Zurich for final discussions and reflection and for sight-seeing on your own. Your coordinator will give ideas for cultural activities. •Farewell dinner at a restaurant in Zurich to wrap up the program 	Zurich
Day 10, July 14, 2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Breakfast at the hotel •Transportation at your own expense from the hotel to the airport •Departure from Zurich Airport (ZRH)to the USA(airfare not included) 	Zurich