

DISABILITY ACCESS

WHY SHOULD YOU JOIN?

Disability ACCESS is a group that provides an opportunity to gain support and connect with others going through similar experiences in grad school and serves as a resource and opportunity to work through challenges as a person with disabilities and/or medical conditions in a supportive environment.

CONTACT INFORMATION

CCAMPBELL1@EGO.THECHICAGOSCHOOL.EDU

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Disability ACCESS is fostering a safe space for students with disabilities, illnesses, and other struggles that impact learning, as well as allies with the aim of building and maintaining a supportive community; promoting awareness, knowledge, and understanding of diverse invisible/visible disability issues; sharing resources; and advocating for diverse disability issues including but not limited to: disability rights, stigma, increased accessibility, equality, and social and policy change within the field of psychology.

MEET THE LEADERS

CAROLINE CAMPBELL
President

PsyD Clinical Psychology

SARAH GILBERG
Vice President

PsyD Clinical Psychology

ANDREW BARAJAS
Secretary

MA Industrial and Organizational Psychology

YEARLY GOALS

- ESTABLISH GREATER SENSE OF COMMUNITY WITHIN THE GROUP
- RECRUIT MORE MEMBERS
- PLAN A FIRST EVENT